

Kathryn IMBODEN*Board Member and Member of the Audit Committee

Mrs. Imboden has worked in the field of economic development since 1973, for the Swiss Agency for Development and Cooperation (SDC) in Chad, the OECD Development Centre, the Club du Sahel and the US Treasury Department. From 1986 to 2001, she was with SDC in Bern, during which time she was responsible for SDC's economic work (macroeconomics and financial sector). Mrs. Imboden chaired the Executive Committee of the Consultative Group to assist the Poorest (CGAP) from 1999 to 2001. She served as Policy Change Manager at Women's World Banking (WWB) from 2001 - 2004, where she led WWB's policy analysis and advocacy work, with a focus on legal, regulatory and supervisory issues. Mrs. Imboden joined the UN Capital Development Fund in spring 2004 to lead the policy work program for the 2005 International Year of Microcredit. She is responsible for an innovative multi-stakeholder consultative process culminating in the publication of the "Blue Book on Building Inclusive Financial Sectors for Development" in fall 2005. Since 2006, Mrs. Imboden is acting as Director of Policy for the Aga Khan Agency.

A citizen of Switzerland and the U.S., she has a B.A. in economics from Mount Holyoke College and a Diploma from the Institut d'études politiques de Paris.